Planning Worksheet for Africana Studies Majors

The major in Africana Studies requires the satisfactory completion of 11 courses (3 credits each) in the Department with a grade of "C" or better. These 11 courses are comprised of 4 required courses and 7 elective courses. At least 5 of the elective courses credited towards the major must be at the 300 or 400 level. Students may take courses in other departments that relate to their area of concentration or interest. Two of those courses may be applied toward the major.
