

Civil Rights in the Age of Obama

a lecture and panel discussion featuring

Benjamin Todd Jealous

National President of the NAACP

PANELISTS:

Theodore Carrington: Environmental Justice Program Director of the NAACP

James Harris: State President of the New Jersey Chapter of the NAACP

Mayor Sharon Robinson Briggs, Mayor of Plainfield and NAACP Activist

Nkechinyere Ugoji: Past Secretary of the Student Chapter of the NAACP, Rutgers.

October 27, 2009
Rutgers Student Center, CAC
7pm

This lecture is part of a series, Africana on the World Stage, that commemorates the 40th anniversary of Africana Studies at Rutgers, New Brunswick. It is sponsored by the Africana Studies Department, The Office of the President, Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the School of Arts and Sciences.