

Ancestral Footprints: The Legacy of Kwame Nkrumah

a lecture featuring

Dr. Daryl Zizwe Poe

Associate Professor of History and Political Science
Lincoln University, PA

November 17, 2009
Alexander Library Teleconference
Lecture Hall, CAC
5 pm

This lecture is part of a series, Africana on the World Stage, that commemorates the 40th anniversary of Africana Studies at Rutgers, New Brunswick. It is sponsored by the Africana Studies Department, The Office of the President, Vice President for Academic Affairs, and the School of Arts and Sciences.